

SEES FUTURE FOR THE PROGRESSIVES

Gov. Johnson of California Says the Results in Massachusetts Show How the Republicans Have Fallen.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Gov. Hiram W. Johnson of California, fresh from the activities in eastern campaigns, was guest of honor at a dinner given by the Chicago Progressive club Thursday night. Of the Massachusetts election he said in a post-prandial speech: "The theater of action, from the national standpoint, was Massachusetts. Here was neither complication nor pretense. Bird, the progressive candidate for governor, was militantly progressive. Gardiner, the republican candidate represented the embittered opposition to progressivism. "Side by side with the reactionaries and the apologists of last year there fought in behalf of Gardiner, those nearly progressive and the entire presidential lightning rod contingent. In dulcet tones, Senators Cummings, Borah, Norris and others pleaded for the old republican party, portrayed its past, and in the name of its glorious traditions and the division of offices that might be made in the future, tearfully begged progressives to return to their old allegiance. "Every specious argument was used; every conceivable power and influence was invoked for Gardiner and against Bird. The result is startling. Today for the first time in history, the republican party is the third party in Massachusetts. The progressive party is the only one with strength intact and is the second party there. "Only in Massachusetts was the contest clear cut. In New Jersey the republican candidate staked his fortunes on his advocacy of Roosevelt and progressivism. In Massachusetts there was no misunderstanding. The question was, which party shall survive, the republican or the progressive? Massachusetts answered in no uncertain tones."

BRING SUSPECT TO THIS CITY IN AUTO

Ray Blackburn, a suspect in a triple murder case following a jewelry store robbery at Grand Rapids in September, was spirited away from Chicago, where he was fighting extradition, yesterday afternoon by Grand Rapids officials and a Chicago police official and taken to Grand Rapids by way of South Bend. The party came to this city in an automobile, completing the journey by rail. Blackburn is one of three men who are thought to have killed three employees of the jewelry store and was arrested in Chicago recently. Habeas corpus proceedings have been in progress since. After yesterday's session Blackburn was hurried into a waiting automobile while being taken from the courthouse to the county jail, handcuffs snapped on his wrists and brought here. Sheriff O'Donnell of Grand Rapids, his deputy, Morgan Panamas, a Chicago policeman and a Grand Rapids newspaperman were the abductors.

Assist. Chief Chappell of the local police, learned the details of the escape from Thomas, an old police friend in Chicago. The Grand Rapids authorities chafed at the tedious trial and the possibility of losing their case, so decided to take heroic measures. Blackburn's friends were taken unawares and no trouble in getting away was met. The automobile was sent back to Chicago where the party arrived here. They took the interurban to Niles and thence to Grand Rapids by railroad.

GYPSIES HAVE NOTHING TO SAY ON ELECTION

A gypsy caravan, composed of two dilapidated covered wagons filled with a passel of dusky and somewhat rundown appearing inhabitants garbed in all the colors of the rainbow, about two pounds of sorry looking puppy dog and a sort of a horse, passed through the city at noon Thursday. On one of the wagons was neatly painted "Thomas A. Edison Phonographs, Muscatine, Iowa," but it is doubted that these nomads are publicity agents for the famous inventor. When interviewed the head of the family said that they were bound for Chicago, but had no idea where they would go after that.

A News-Times reporter asked one of the women her views on the late election, and leaning forward, squinting her eyes and exposing a row of incisors about the shade of a well colored meerschaum, she said: "Hah!" The remainder of the conversation being in gypsy, we are unable to translate for the edification of our readers.

WOMAN LOSES FIGHT TO OBTAIN HER RELEASE

Mrs. Lake, Accused of Being an Accessory to Murder, Claims Meade Never Confessed.

DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 7.—Mrs. Ellie L. Lake, under arrest here in connection with the Florence Brown murder, failed Thursday to obtain her release on habeas corpus proceedings, the court sustaining the state's demurrer that the petition was defective. Her attorneys will file an amended application Thursday. Mrs. Lake, a widow of one month, has been in jail since Sunday night, her six year son remaining with her. Meade Barr, whose alleged confession that he murdered the Brown girl is said to have involved Mrs. Lake Thursday told newspapermen that he had never confessed to the killing.

GIRL WHO ELOPES, AND THEN SEEING HER HUSBAND MARRIED, ELOPES AGAIN

Mrs. Dan Staffler, who has eloped and married twice within two years. Special Correspondence.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 6.—For the second time in two years Miss Welma Halsted has eloped and married.

The first time was while she was a student at Stanford. She ran away with Dr. Phillip Elise, a classmate. This marriage was annulled. Recently her former husband married again. Miss Halsted was a guest at the wedding.

Then she eloped to Paso Robles with Dan Staffler, where the second knot was tied.

DEMONSTRATES HOW TO TEACH BIBLE HISTORY

Three practical papers were presented and discussed Thursday at the session of the Northern Indiana Lutheran Teachers' conference in session in South Bend in the Lutheran Young People's hall on W. Jefferson boulevard.

With a class of 20 pupils to demonstrate, a paper on "How to Conduct a Lesson in Bible History," was presented by H. G. Nuoffer of Ft. Wayne, Mr. Schuricht of Friedheim, Ind., discussed in a similar way how to conduct a reading lesson, and Mr. Koenig of Elkhart an observation lesson. The first two papers were thoroughly discussed and criticized this morning and the third will occupy a part of this afternoon.

This evening the Walther league will entertain the teachers at a social meeting.

THREE PARTIES FARE POORLY IN ELECTIONS

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—The socialist, prohibition and socialist-labor candidates fared poorly in the state election Tuesday. The total vote for the three candidates for governor, with a few towns missing, and estimating their vote was:

Socialist 8,987; prohibition, 2,052; socialist-labor, 1,934.

The state vote in 1912 was, socialist, 11,493; prohibition, 2,702; socialist-labor, 2,512.

TO TELL OF PIONEER DAYS

Meeting of Melting Pot to be Devoted to Early History.

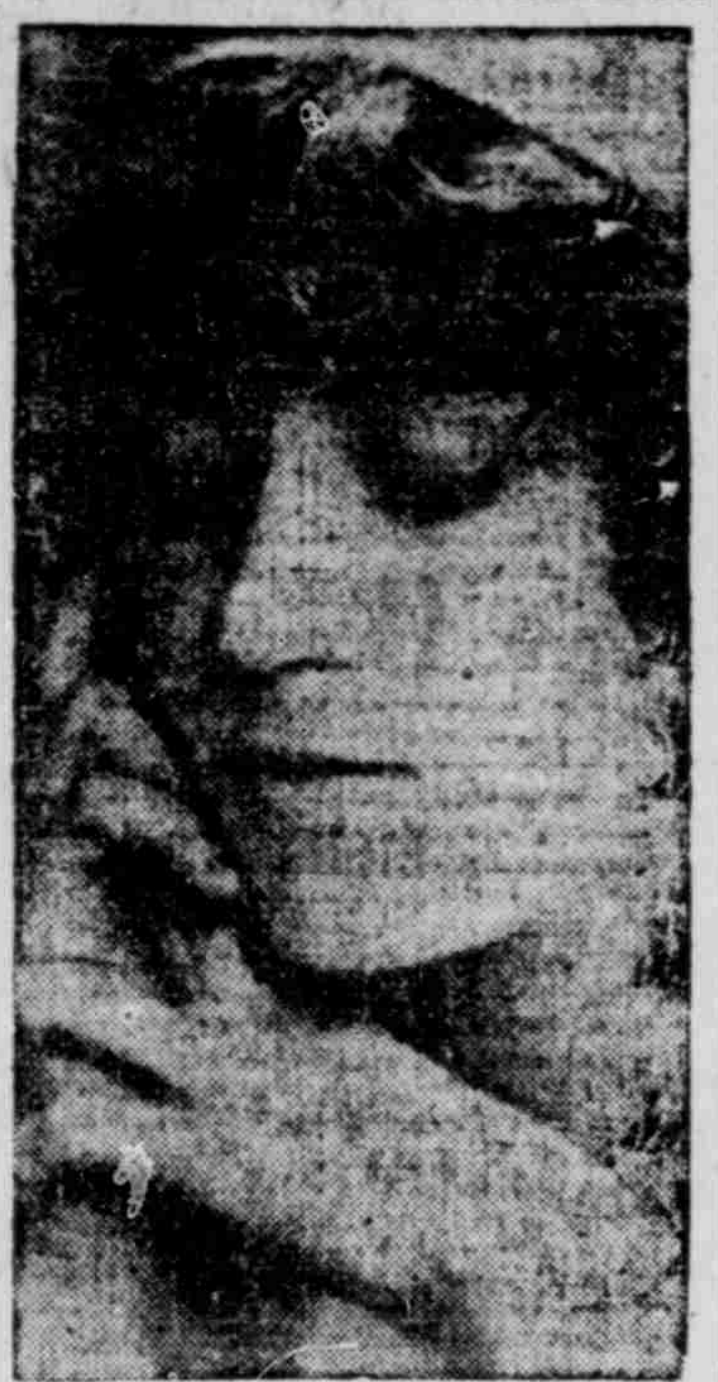

Pioneer days in South Bend are to be treated on in a paper to be read at the meeting of the Melting Pot at the Commercial Athletic club on next Monday night. C. B. Stephenson is to tell of the early life of the city in a paper and many of the early residents of the city will be guests of the club for the evening and are expected to add to the discussion of the early settlers. Old fashioned songs by a special quartet is to be another feature.

COUPLE ENTERTAINED. Mr. and Mrs. Verne Van Dusen, 1029 Allen st., were surprised by their friends Thursday night on the 12th anniversary of their wedding. Most of the guests were from New Carlisle, the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Van Dusen. A buffet luncheon, which was brought along by the guests, was served. Games and contests featured the evening.

ONE OF THE PRETTIEST GIRLS SEEN IN LONDON

MISS HANNAH RANDOLPH.

One of the prettiest girls seen in London this season was Miss Hannah Randolph, daughter of Philip B. P. Randolph, of Philadelphia, and a cousin of Viscountess Maudslowe, who was Miss Margaretta Drexel before her marriage. Miss Randolph's sister Dorothy married John Pell of Narragansett, the owner of Highbridge, America's best steeple chaser, which won the Prince of Wales handicap this year.

The two sisters were in England together this year and went about a good deal. Miss Hannah Randolph was one of the bridesmaids at the wedding of Lord Decies and Miss Vivian Gould. She is an expert horsewoman, exhibiting at Lakewood and Narragansett frequently, and an enthusiastic polo player. The various fashionable race

Newspaper Advertisement Points Way to Health

I can truthfully say that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is a very good medicine, not alone for kidney trouble but also for weak and sore back, as well as for rheumatism.

About a year ago I became ill and unable to work, my trouble being a lame back. I read of your Swamp-Root in the newspaper and in an Almanac. Believing it would do me good, I went to my drugist, Mr. Skinner, and purchased a bottle. Finding relief in one fifty-cent bottle, I purchased several more and in a short time was able to continue with my work and am today feeling well and strong. I always recommend Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root to my friends as I believe it is as good a medicine as can be found.

AUGUST STRONG, 2414 Washington Ave., No. 6, Minneapolis, Minn. Mr. Skinner makes affidavit that he sold the Swamp-Root to Mr. Strong.

WARNING: KEEP AWAY FROM CALIFORNIA.

SA FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—To the governors of all the states of the Union, the Young Women's Christian association of San Francisco has sent letters asking their aid "in coping with a situation which is rapidly becoming alarming."

"Women from all walks of life," says the letter, "have been coming to the association in constantly increasing numbers, leaving good positions in the east, under the impression that the Panama-Pacific International exposition will create more positions than can be filled by women of the state. Many of these women say they are already starving."

"There are already in California," announces the association, "more than enough women to fill every position now open or which might be created as the result of the exposition."
